TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber, after a lapse of time necessarily consumed in the preparation of his house, respectfully announces to the citizens of Alexandria, as well as the community at large, that he has taken for a term of years that noted and eligible establishment known by the name of the CITY HOTEL, and once occupied by Mr Gadsby, whose distinguished abilities as a Publican gave it an eclat which the subscriber hopes to preserve by his unremitted exertions in affording to all those who may confer on him the favor of their patronage, genteel and comfortable accommodations. The subscriber deems it unnecessary to indicate the multiplicity of conveniences attached to the City Hotel, and will only submit a description to that portion of travellers who have so generally attested its numerous advantages.

NOTICE.

LAST NIGHT between the hours of seven and eight o'clock, was stolen from the house formerly occupied by Mr Lawes, now occupied by Miss Hellen Gullatt, two Bed quilts, one of which being remarkable had a large sized leaf with a dark ground diamond, being also of furniture calico, and quilted by the leaf, also by the diamond—the other being a diamond and star, with a large star in the center, quilted chiefly in shells—also a basket and linen sheet. Whoever will apprehend the thief, and deliver the things to this office, or to Miss Hellen Gullatt, shall be generously rewarded. Should they be offered for sale, it is requested they may be stopped and information given as above mentioned.

GLENCARN;

OR

THE DISAPPOINTMENTS OF YOUTH,

A NOVEL.

BY GEORGE WATTERSTON, Esq.
OF WASHINGTON CITY,
Author of the Lawyer and Child of Feeling.

The celebrity of this author's "LAWYER," and "CHILD OF FEELING" induced the publishers to engage in this work, and without detracting from the merits of the former, feel themselves justified in stating that his GLENCARN is superior to either. It is submitted without further recommendation, with a wish that the American reviewers may give further encouragement to this young gentleman's endeavors to entertain, instruct and moralise his fellow citizens, in a way seemingly well calculated to attract their attention.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

WAS STOLEN from the subscriber's stable, in this town, on Sunday night last, the 18th instant, a light SORREL HORSE, with a long and large blaze in his face, flaxen mane, and tail nearly of the same color, but not so white. This horse is supposed to be about 14 or 14 and half hands high, and 6 or 7 years old—he is compact, remarkable for the excellence of his gaits, carries his head rather low, and a good tail though neither nick'd nor bob'd—no artificial marks recollected—he may however be easily known by an examination of his eyes which will shew that he has been recently cut for the hooks, and by a trick of starting and turning round when he meets another horse. The above reward will be given for the horse and thief, and TEN DOLLARS with all reasonable charges for the horse alone.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23.

To the honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

THE PETITION OF CORNELIUS VICKLEHAUSENTRENTZER,

Respectfully represents,

THAT your petitioner has at great labor and expence, invented an invaluable machine for marine warfare called Torpedo, and will demonstrate that he can do any enemy the "most harm," provided he is permitted to "manage his affairs in his own way," and they should attempt to make a "bloody Arena" of the United States.

The Torpedo is made of a washing-tub, which with an additional head, and turned upside down, is filled with powder and certain combustibles. Through the staves several springs project which communicate with clock work within. The outside is covered with a composition like birdlime, of an extraordinary nature, which is attracted by a vessels bottom, and adheres to it as readily as the needle to a load-stone.

By placing several of them in the water at ebb tide, or to windward, so as to descend with the current, a ship of the line or a fleet of any number may be blown up with a tremendous explosion, as quick as either of your honors could say Trap-stick or Jack Robinson.

Torpedoes, No. 2, in tin cases buoyd with casks, in the shape of a sugar-loaf, may be discharged from the cannon of gun boats and answer equally as well as the others

It was by Torpedoes furnished by your petitioner, that the naval victories were obtained by the British at Aboukir, Camperdown, and Trafalgar.

At Trafalgar, from the superior discipline and manœuvering of the combined fleets, the British was at first much worsted, and Lord Nelson about to run away, when your petitioner reminded him of the Torpedoes that had been forgot, and which immediately decided the fate of that day so honorable to the "nation of shopkeepers."

His lordship had the credit of gaining the battle, but your petitioner was entitled to it, which his diffidence has prevented his mentioning til now.

Several attemps have been made by "vile federalists," "old tories," and others, with "British gold," to dissuade your petitioner from communicating the result of his "useful labors," to your honorable house.

In order to exhibit "a view of the whole ground," your petitioner wishes to be permitted to deliver a lecture in the capitol, where he will give convincing proof to your honors and the world, that by the use of torpedoes, gun boats and dry docks, with the aid of philosophers, the United States have nothing to fear from any nation; and that by a perpetual embargo or non-intercourse law, America will become the most wealthy, happy and "dignified" nation on earth.

As your petitioner has been at a great expence while going on "in the full tide of successful experiment," and as his "energies" have been principally exerted for the benefit of the United States, he presumes to ask for a million of dollars out of the overflowing treasury, which he has no dobt will be considered reasonable, and granted.

And your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray, &c.

Wanted to Hire for the ensuing Year,

A NEGRO MAN, who can work in the house, and take care of horses. Apply to the PRINTER.

TUESDAY, [illegible]

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

Mr. Montgomery, [illegible] by the committee to whom was referred the memorial of the president and directors of the bank of the United States, to make the following report, though contrary to his own sentiments and to those also of the member from Virginia, (Mr. Bassett) and the member from Massachusetts, (Mr. Seaver.)

"The committee &c. report:

"That in proceeding to the consideration of the said petition, your committee instructed their chairman to address a letter to the secretary of the treasury, requesting him to furnish such information or observations as he might think proper in relation to the subject matter thereof as connected with the financial and commercial interests of the United States. In reply to which the secretary by his letter to the chairman referred your committee to his former report on the said subject, made to the senate of the United States, in obedience to the order of that house.

"Your committee have been attended by agents of the petitioners, who in addition to the matters contained in the petition have suggested to your committee, that the object of the petitioners was to obtain the renewal of the charter in its present form. That for this renewal the bank is willing to make compensation either by loans, at a rate of interest, or by a sum of money to be agreed upon; or by an increase of the capital stock, by a number of shares to be taken and subscribed by the United States, to an amount adequate to the compensation agreed upon for such reward.

"These agents also suggested that they were fully authorised and empowered to offer and conclude the terms specifically connected with those propositions. Your committee not feeling themselves authorised to enter into such terms, and judging that the extent of these propositions would better apply to the details of a bill than to the adoption of a principle, to be first settled by the house, have therefore foreborne to enquire into the extent of the propositions and without expressing an approbation or rejection of these offers, or giving an opinion as to the plan and reasoning of the secretary of the treasury, your committee in order that the opinion of the house on this great national question may be declared, previous to entering into the details connected with the subject, recommend the folowing rhsolution:

"Resolved, That it is proper to make provision for continuing the establishment of the bank of the United States, with offices of discount and deposit under the regulations necessary for the benefical administration of the national finances during such time, and on such conditions as may be defined by law."—This report was committed.

The following message was received from the president of the U. States:

To the House of Representatives of the U. S.

I transmit reports of the secretaries of state and of the treasury, complying with your resolution of the fifth inst.

JAMES MADISON.

February 17, 1810.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
February 14, 1810.

Agreeably to a resolution of the house of representatives, of the 5th instant, requesting the president of the United States to cause to be laid before the house copies of the several communications made to the governments of France and Great Britain, in pursuance of the authorities vested by congress in the executive, with respect to the several orders and decrees of either violating the lawful commerce of and neutral rights of the United States, except such parts as may, in his judgment, require secrecy; and also to communicate to the same house such information as he may have received touching the forgery of papers purporting to be those of American vessels, the secretary of state has the honor of laying before the president the following papers, viz.

1st. Extract of a letter from Mr. Smith, secretary of state, to general Armstrong, minister plenipotentiary of the U. S. at Paris, dated March 15th, 1809.

2d. Copy of note from general Armstrong to count Champagny, minister of exterior relations at Paris, dated 29th April, 1809.

3d. Extract of a letter from Mr. Smith to Mr. Pinkney, minister plenipotentiary, U. States at London, dated March [illegible] 1809.

Extracts of a letter from Mr. Pinkney, Mr. Smith, dated May 1, 1809.

Extracts of a letter from John M. [illegible], consul of the United States at Hamburg, to Mr. Madison, secretary of state, dated 13th Nov. 1807.

B. Extracts of a letter from Mr. Lee, commercial agent of the United States, at Bordeaux, to the same, dated November 1, 1808.

C. Copy of a letter from Mr. Hackley, consul of the United States at St. Lucar, to Mr. Smith, dated Cadiz, 22d March, 1809.

D. Sundry original documents belonging to, and concerning the ship Aurora of New York.

E. Extract of a letter from Mr. Harris, consul of the U. States, at St. Petersburg, to Mr. Smith, dated 25th Oct. 1809, covering certain papers belonging to the ship called the Georgia, of New York.

F. Extracts of a letter from John M. Forbes, dated Nov. 7, 1809, to Mr. Smith, covering the forged sea letter of the ship Arno, of Boston, dated Aug. 21, 1809, also a letter of the same date, signed Stedhen Higginson and company, to capt. William Kempton.

G. Extract of a letter from William Kirkpatrick, consul of the United States at Malaga, to Mr. Smith, dated Nov. 25, 1809.

It may be proper moreover to state, that various other communications have been received at this department from the agents of the U.S. in foreign countries, which mention that the practice prevails of forging American ships papers and documents; but as they do not afford any details, they are not included in this report, which is respectfully submitted.

R. SMITH.

Extract of a letter from the secretary of state, to Gen. Armstrong, minister plenipotentiary of the United States at Paris dated

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
March 15, 1809.

"The proceedings of congress at their late session, combined with the executive communications, affording, as they do, additional proofs of the pacific disposition of this government, and of its strict observance of whatever the laws of neutrality require, you will not fail to avail yourself of the just arguments thence deducible in urging the equitable claims of the United States. The 1, 2, 3, 4, 11 and 17th sections of the act interdicting our commercial intercourse with Great Britain and France, will, in that view claim your attention, and especially the 11th section, authorising the executive to renew our commerce with the nation withdrawing the operation of its illegal edicts, and you will be careful to let it be understood that the authority thus vested, will, of course, be exercised in the event stated in the law."

General Armstrong to Count Champagny

"PARIS, 29*th April* 1809.

"The undersigned, minister plenipotentiary of the Unted States, has the honor to present to his excellency the minister of exterior relations, the enclosed copy of a law recently passed by the legislature of the union.

"This law, as may be seen by the several provisions of it, has been forced upon them by the extraordinary circumstances of the times, and is to be regarded as an act of precaution, taken with the view only of protecting their property and rights, and of once more appealing to the interest and justice of those who would disturb or destroy them.

"Your excellency may be assured, that as nothing has given more disquietude to the United States than the necessity which has impelled them to the adoption of this measure, so nothing will give them more satisfaction than to see that necessity cease. It is in the spirit and sincerity of this declaration, that the undersigned is instructed to add, that any interpretation of the Imperial decrees of the twenty-first of Nov. 1806, and seventeenth of December, 1807, which shall have the effect of leaving unimpaired the maritime rights of the union, will be instantaneously followed by a revocation of the present act, and a re-establishment of the ordinary commercial intercourse between the two countries.

"I offer to your excellency, &c. &c.
(Signed) JOHN ARMSTRONG.
"His excellency Count Champagny."

Extract of a letter from the Secretary of State to William Pinkney, Esq. minister plenipotentiary of the United States, in London, dated Department of State, 15th March, 1809.

"The proceedings of Congress at their [illegible] communications [illegible] additional proofs of the pacific disposition of this government, and of its strict observance of whatever the laws of neutrality require, you will not fail to avail yourself of the just arguments thence deducible in urging the equitable claims of the United States. The 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th, 11th and 17th sections of the act interdicting our commercial intercourse with Great-Britain and France, will, in that view, claim your attention, and especially the eleventh section, authorising the executive to renew our commerce with the nation withdrawing the operation of its illegal edicts. And you will be careful to let it be understood, that the authority thus vested, will be of course exercised in the event stated in the law.

Extracts from a letter of Mr. Pinkney, minister plenipotentiary of the U. States, at London, to Mr. Smith, secretary of state, dated LONDON, May 1, 1809.

"Upon receipt of your letter of the 15th of March, it became my obvious duty to ask a conference with Mr. Canning. It took place accordingly on Monday the 17th of April."

"With a view to do justice to the character and tendency of the law of the first of March, I called the attention of Mr. Canning in a particular manner to the 11th section, which provides for the renewal of commercial intercourse with the power revoking or so modifying its edicts as they should cease to violate the neutral commerce of the U. S. and in obedience to my instructions I assured him that the authority vested in the President to proclaim such revocation or modification, would not fail to be exercised as the case occurred."

"I entered into a minute explanation of the law of the first of March, and in the course of it availed myself of every inducement of interest which it could be supposed to furnish to his government to retract its orders in council, and of the proofs with which it abounds of the sincere desire of the American government to cultivate peace and friendship with G. B. even while it was repelling what it deemed encroachments and injuries the most pernicious & alarming."

Treasury Department, Feb. 16, 1810.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose a statement transmitted by the collector of Boston, in relation to the ship Arno which entered Tonningen with a forged sea-letter.

Exclusively of the cases respecting forged marine papers which have from time to time been communicated by the department of state, one only has come to the knowledge of the treasury, the particulars of which are explained by the enclosed letter from the collector of New York, and the papers accompanying the same.

I have the honor to be, &c.

ALBERT GALLATIN.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23.

Mr. Macon's Bill.—We have further to congratulate our friends on the final passage of Mr. Macon's bill in the Senate. It was taken up in that body yesterday morning.—A motion was made to re-commit the bill. The question on this motion was taken and lost, 13 to 20. The final question on the bill as amended, was taken yesterday, and carried, ayes 26, noes 7.

Another vexatious Decree.—Yesterday arrived here the brig Ann, capt. Pousland, from Tonningen, which place she left the 28th December; she brings no papers or verbal intelligence whatever, except that the Danish government had issued a decree for the seizure of all property imported for the last six months. The object of the decree (says a letter which we have seen) is "with a view that a strict examination may take place as to its origin and neutrality." The same letter further adds, "the prevailing opinion is that the property which is neutral will remain secure, these measures being only against property which has been smuggled in from England. Let the event be what it will, I feel very uneasy at our present situation." The letter from which these extracts are taken, is dated the 6th of December, and no restoration had taken place when capt. Pousland sailed.

There is no doubt but a very considerable amount of property has been carried to Tonningen and to other Danish ports from England direct, and that with the knowledge and connivance of the Danish, or rather Bonaparte's government, whose officers had a good understanding with the importers; as Sheridan says in his School for Scandal, "these fellows have not honesty enough to be faithful to their own villainies."

The injury which the merchants of our country will sustain by this iniquitous decree, will be great. There are two objects which the decree professes to have in view; the origin and the neutrality. The neutrality is perhaps easier to prove than the origin, except as to American produce, but it is evident, that other proofs than those carried with the property, will be required from this country. This will consume much time, meanwhile a few more millions of American property will go into Bonaparte's exchequer, where it will remain as a kind of security for our good behavior, and furnish his partizans with another argument in favor of our avoiding his displeasure and cultivating his friendship. If he should be pleased with our future conduct, and we join him in "asserting maritime rights and the liberty of the seas," it is probable that our merchants may be compensated for his numerous spoliations on their property, in the old way, that is, he will sell us a territory, which does not belong him, which has no boundaries, which we do not want, and for three times as much as he acknowledges to be due to us. This will be called a good bargain by some, and cover our rulers with immortal honor.

(Norfolk Ledger.)

From the Boston Centinel.

The wisdom of the embargo; and the blessing of non-intescourse—[Exemplified by a Farmer.]

Mr. Secretary Gallatin, in his report of December, 1805, which has been published in the papers, states the revenue arising from the duties on merchandize and tonnage (after deducting the expence of collecting) for the three last years, as follows, viz.

In the year 1807		$16,059,457
1808		10,332,163
1809	(estimated)	6,500,000

Deficiencies,

In 1808	$5,727,30[illegible]
In 1809	9,559,45[illegible]
	15,286,75[illegible]

Thus making a deficiency, or dead loss, to the treasury of the United States from the duties on merchandize and tonnage, occasioned by the embargo and non intercourse schemes of fifteen millions, two hundred eighty-six thousand, seven hundred and fifty-one dollars. And yet there are ideots and slaves who condemn the federalists, particularly those in Massachusetts; who, by their sprited, energetic, and truly constitutional proceedings, induced the government to abandon one of those iniquitous and destructive measures; and gave the other a blow which it will not long survive.

It is said to cost the British nation one thousand pound sterling per gun to build her ships of war, Supposing it would cost the United States the same, the above deficiency in the revenue for the last two years, would have given employment to thousands of mechanics, and have built a navy of twenty 74 gun ships, and 49 frigates, viz.

AN AMERICAN.

Congress of the United States.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, February 22.

[Taken for the Alexandria Gazette.]

A communication from the Post Master General was read, covering a report respecting a revision of all the laws of Congress respecting the Post Office department. Ordered to be printed.

A communication from the secretary of war, covering accounts of contracts for 1809. Ordered to be printed.

The Speaker informed the house that he had a communication from Mr. Landais, which he was requested to lay before the house. On account of some expressions in the letter, he thought it ought not to be communicated. It was laid on the table without reading.

Mr. Love, after a long and luminous speech respecting a national bank, in which he stated the advantages that would accrue from such an institution, offered the following resolution:

"Resolved, That a committee be appointed to enquire into the propriety and expediency of establishing a National Bank." After some desultory conversation on the subject, the resolution was referred to the committee of the whole, to whom was referred the report of the committee on the petition of the stockholders of the U. S. Bank.

Mr. Upham, after some observations on the appropriation of 50,000 dollars a few days since, for contingent expences for foreign intercourse, offered the following resolution, in substance:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury be directed to lay before the house a detailed account of monies drawn from the treasury in the years 1808 and 1809, stating for what purpose they have been drawn and how they have been accounted for.

Mr. Sheffy stated the Secretary of the Treasury was making out such a statement as the gentleman wished, in compliance with a resolution which he had the honor to lay before the house some time since.

Mr. Upham consented to have his resolution lie on the table.

Mr. Bassett from the committee on the navy establishment, made a report relative to naval pensions. Referred to the committee of the whole, to whom was referred the other report of the same committee.

On motion of Mr. W. Alston the house went into committee of the whole on the amendments to the appropriation bill, made by the senate—Mr. BASSETT in the chair. The committee went through the amendments and reported the bill as amended, and the amendments were agreed to.

A message was received from the senate, stating that they had passed [the bill respecting foreign intercourse [Mr Macon's bill] with amendments. The bill was immediately taken up in the house.

Mr. Dawson moved to commit it with the amendments to a committee of the whole—the question on this motion was lost.

[illegible] moved to postpone until [illegible]; to make some important

[illegible] against the postponement [illegible] consideration until this day week—he thought it would be trifling with the feelings of the people, who were looking with anxiety to this house, for some relief from the non-intercourse.

Mr. Gold was of the same opinion with Mr. Taylor; he thought it was important that the bill should be decided on immediately.

Mr. Bacon was for the postponing until Saturday; and no longer. He thought the 12th section might possibly prevent fines and penalties from being collected under the old embargo laws.

Mr. Sheffy contended that the 12th section could not at this stage of the business be amended.

Mr. Macon was willing to postpone for a day—but he could not consent to postpone for any longer time. He thought it was giving encouragement to the unprincipled part of mankind to keep the non-intercourse any longer in force.

Mr. Bibb was opposed to postponement at all, even until to-morrow.

Mr. Key explained the 12th section and declared that it would not have the effect stated by the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. Bacon.)

Mr. Gardenier should like to have the section do away all fines and penalties. As the embargo and non-intercourse were to be done away he wished all fines and penalties. He could wish that this 22d day of February, the birth-day of the benefactor of this country might be a jubilee to the nation—a general fail delivery—he could desire that all those old self restrictive—self destroying systems should be done away at once.

The British Packet, we understand, has suddenly been ordered to sail, by Mr. Jackson. She will in consequence leave New York early to-morrow morning. Dr. Logan goes out in this vessel; in what character, either as an acknowledged minister, or private mediator, the public are not given to understand—One fact may not be uninteresting to the public: Dr. Logan is in habits of friendly intimacy with Mr. Jackson, the repudiated British minister. He dined with him on Thursday last.

RICHARD WOOD,

Emperor of the Shavers, King of the Prize-scurs, and Protector of the Commonalty of the Graces,

MOST respectfully ventures to apprise the Ladies and Gentlemen of this good city, that he has chosen Monday next for the commencement of his Imperial career.

The faculty which the Emperor possesses, being inherent and incommunicable, cannot, of course, be attained by practice, and is given to but few. Beauty, that "rare, rarest work," are first to be addressed;—The Emperor will attend them professionally at five seconds' notice, at their houses, where he will execute in the antique or modern style; either that in which the heroic Maid of Orleans chose to lead her brave Gauls to the charge;—that in which the Empress Josephine appears at her first chop levees (Armstrong not admitted) or that in which the lovely Princess Jerome Patterson Napoleon, now at Washington, with more than chymic power, turns to combustion the heart of every unfortunate gazer (It belongs alone, in our good District of Columbia) to Richard let to give the human face that exquisitely interesting air of negligent sweetness so long sought and frizzled for in vain by mere mechanical operators.

To strength he just observes, that although the stubble on their prolific chin, be horny and unyielding as a comb; he wields a razor that shall raze it even with the skin, or a day's growth under if requested; and with such ease and safety as to render the operation a luxury to the subject. Hours of attendance, Chicken crowing to horn blowing.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY on Friday the 12th inst. a Negro Man slave named BILL—he calls himself Bill Payne, belonging to the subscriber, living in Charles county, state of Maryland. The said slave is a house servant, waits and drives a carriage very well; he is 23 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, small face, handsome lively eyes, is very fond of strong liquor, plays on the fiddle—had on and took with him one suit of blue nankeens, a dark cloth coat and overalls, two jackets of Bennett's cord, two India cotton shirts, one with ruffles, one pair of good boots, one hat half worn, and sundry other wearing apparel, not sufficiently known to be well described. The said slave took a fiddle with him, and it is expected that he intends to go to Frederick Town (Maryland). The above reward will be paid for securing the said slave in any public jail, and reasonable charges if brought to me in Charles county.

TO PARENTS.

The wonderful cures of certain HAMILTON'S CELEBRATED WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES

(Selected from a very

ARE presented as indubitable proof of the excellence and safety of this valuable specific, for destroying worms in the human stomach and intestines.

From Mr. Benjamin Williams, No. 30, Baltimore street, two doors above south Gay-street.

I have a son six years of age, who for four years past, has been generally in a very unhealthy state, particularly in summer; frequently afflicted with alarming convulsion fits, the whole of his little frame wasted fast, his breath foetid, and almost constant itching at the nose was excited, with other alarming symptoms. During the course of the above period, the advice and attendance of three of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore were successively procured. Each of these gentlemen, in his turn, declared worms to be the cause of the child's disorder, and exhausted his skill in attempting to expel them. Pink root, steel filings, with a variety of other medicines, were administered without the least success. It was once pronounced impossible for the child to live many hours.

I had heard of your Worm Destroying Lozenges, but with many others did not think highly of so cheap a medicine, until a gentleman of my acquaintance (Mr. Wm. S. Moore, auctioneer) in whose family they had been used with good effect, advised me to make trial of them; I accordingly gave my son a dose agreeable to directions, which soon expelled eight large worms, some of them about eight inches in length; a second dose brought away four more of similar size; a third dose being administered, no worms appeared. The child recovered and now enjoys a good state of health.

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS.

AFFIDAVIT.

Michael Duffy, residing at No. 47, Walkes street, Fell's Point, in the city of Baltimore voluntarily maketh oath that the following statement is just and true:

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls the one five, and the other three years of age were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms. They were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success, which only increased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate. I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects.—The eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skin and slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health, which they still enjoy, though 5 months have nearly elapsed, since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole seemed to be inevitable.

J. SMITH.

Sworn before me, this 26th day of September, 1799.

Philadelphia, August 5 1806.

TO H. LEE.

Some time last spring I was afflicted with loss of appetite, giddiness in the head, fever, and great debility, so that I could scarcely walk. In this distressing situation I took many things, but without benefit. An acquaintance in the country sent to me to procure a box of Hamilton's Lozenges. Curiosity prompted me to read the directions, where I found my complaint exactly described by the doctor. I immediately sent for another box of the Lozenges, and took one dose, which brought away a large quantity of worms, and I felt greatly relieved. Encouraged by this, I took another dose, which was attended with the happiest effects, as it relieved me entirely, and am now in a better state of health than for a considerable time the nose, and about the seat—convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes a privation of speech—irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious—purging with slimy and fœtid stools—vomiting—large and hard belly—pains and sickness at the stomach—pains in the head and thighs, with lowness of spirits—slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—a dry cough—excessive thirst—sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and rushed.

...ons afflicted with any of the above ...ptoms, should have immediate recourse ... Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

Prevention better than Cure.

In cases of head ache, foul stomach, and for removing superfluous bile, perhaps no remedy has been discovered superior to

LEE'S HAHN'S ANTIBILIOUS PILLS,

Which for 10 years past have been attended with the greatest success. The testimony of many respectable persons in our southern sea ports has been adduced who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy during the prevalence of malignant fevers, has preserved their health after experiencing alarming symptoms of fever.

Certificate of Wm. Devenny.

During the last nine years I have been in the habit of using Hahn's Antibilious Pills, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, whenever colds, head ache, or costiveness have rendered medicine necessary; in these cases a single dose has uniformly removed my head ache, and has generally been found sufficient to remove every symptom of a cold, if taken on its first appearance. Induced by the benefit I have received, I have for years past recommended them to many of my friends, and I have the pleasure to inform you, they have invariably succeeded in removing the above complaints.

Yours, WM. DEVENNY,

For Sale,

The following VALUABLE PROPERTY.

A TRACT OF LAND,

CONTAINING 1600 acres, more or less, called and known by the name of Buffaloe Marsh, lying within 12 miles of Winchester, in the county of Frederick, in the state of Virginia. On about 900 acres of this tract there are several very well improved farms tenanted for life or lives, the balance free of all incumbrance, including an excellent merchant mill built with stone, the whole yielding an annual rent of about 800 dollars. Much of this tract is very fertile, well watered, and all abundance of timber. It is generally rolling, but part of it is hilly and stoney, chiefly of lime stone. It will be laid off to suit purchasers.

Another tract, called Hollis's Marsh, lying in the county of Westmoreland containg about 2800 acres, bordering on the river Potomac, adjoining the Stratford estate, and the late residence of Richard Lee, esq. of Chantilly. On the estate are a number of farms and tenants at will. Part of this land is extremely fertile, and all of it as good as the lands generally are in that part of the country. The Marsh affords excellent range for stock, and is happily situated for fish and fowls of which that river abounds, and must be a desirable estate to any person who may choose to reside in that part of the country.—It will however be laid off to suit purchasers.

The above lands are held by deeds of purchase duly recorded in the general court.

Another tract containing 992 acres, lying in the county of Berkeley, adjoining the residence of Rawleigh Colston, esq. of which about 660 acres is leased for the balance of the life of an aged man, the rest tenanted at will. This land is situate in what is called the big bend of Potomac, and borders on it. In point of fertility it is esteemed inferior to none in that part of the state and is held by deed from James Marshall, esq.

Seven other tracts containing 1000 acres each, adjoining each other in the county of Mason, within a few miles of the Ohio, between the two Kanhawa's on the waters of Sandy Creek, which runs through a considerable part of it. It adjoins the lands of general Washington, and the late Benjamin Harrison, jun esq. A large portion of it is rich bottom and the upland of very good quality. It is held under the original patentee by deeds duly recorded in the general court.

Five full & complete Shares in the Dismal Swamp Company.

Upwards of 16,000 acres of Lands, being very old military rights, lying in the states of Ohio, Kentucky and the Indiana territory, chiefly patented in my own name and ready to be shewn.

A more particular description of the foregoing property may be seen by applying to Mr. Thomas Taylor, of Richmond, who is authorized to make contracts, or to myself in Alexandria. The titles are all undoubted and the terms proposed are, one fourth in cash at the time of conveyance, the balance in three instalments, the last two to be on interest from the date. Any species of the public stock and of the different Banks in the United States of Insurance Companies—of the Potomac Bridge and Turnpike Companies will be received in payment according to their fair value. Ground rents in the city of Richmond and town of Alexandria, or Houses and Lots, will likewise be received in payment according to such rates as may be agreed upon.
